THE 1960

...ELK

Foreword

In this edition of our high school annual, we, the Senior Class of 1960, have endeavored to portray a panorama of our high school days, with special emphasis on the leading personalities and highlights of this eventful year. We hope this annual will keep for you the events, friendships, and experiences of past years.

FALL... USHERED IN A NEW YEAR....

Students purchase school supplies at student store from Dickie Noe, student council representative.

Representatives Janet Burcham, Anne Plaster, and Harry Jennings served as hostesses at the Parent Conferences. Mrs. A. R. Plaster and Mrs. John Brown receive daughter's report card.

RENEWED THE EVER-PRESENT SPIRIT AT E.H.S.

WINTER'S . . . CHILL FOUND A REBIRTH

One of the many youth centers held after our athletic contests. This "get together" followed an Elkin-Jonesville game.

IN EXTRA-CURRICULAR

ACTIVITIES AND SOCIAL EVENTS...

AND OFFERED TIME TO STUDY...

SPRING . . FOUND SENIORS PREPARING

FOR GRADUATION

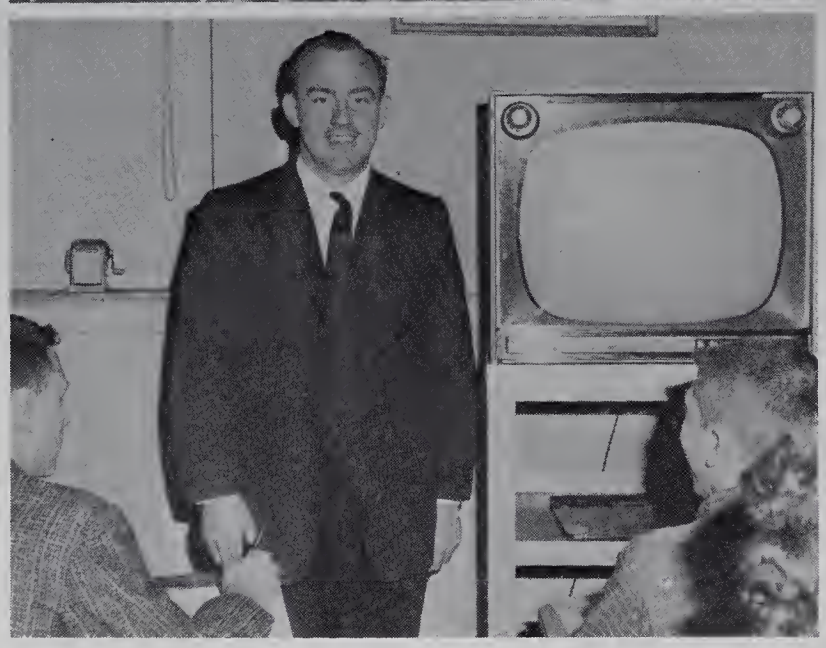
Judy McCoin measures Tommy Davis for his cap and gown.

Rick Henderson writes a receipt for the Washington trip as Adviser Blois Grissom looks on.

Students playing leading roles in Class Day are: Butch Eller, Testator; Coney Gentry, Master of Ceremonies; Barry Fox, Prophet; Marcella Sears, Giftorian; Judy McCoin, Historian; Sandy Biggs, Giftorian; Steve Blackburn, Stage Manager; Kenneth Blackburn, Stage Manager; Peggy Johnson, Poetess.

WHILE OTHERS DREAMED OF THEIR YEARS TO COME AT E.H.S.

Counselor and friend to the bus drivers.



Teacher of United States History television class.

To a man who has taken a genuine interest in the students and who has been willing to give of his loyalty, help, and friendship at all times and for his extra work in school activities such as bus drivers, T. V. courses, and class adviser, we express our appreciation. As a token of our gratitude and thanks for his untiring efforts of service to the school and to each of us, we, the Senior class of 1960, dedicate our yearbook, the 1960 Elk, to Mr. Clyde A. Parker—teacher, friend, minister, and counselor.

Dedication

Mr. Clyde A. Parker

OUR ALMA MATER

Far below the Blue Ridge Mountains,
There's a place we love;
And we live there always seeking
Higher aims above.
We've a school of which we're proud;
We'll always be true.
This we sing our Alma Mater
To our Gold and Blue.
